It is unclear what happened to each of the daughters but by 1786 the property of Clifhayne was in name of John Willie. On Land Tax of 1798 the owner was still John Willie. 1810 Land Tax had George Glade as tenant. In 1810 the property was described as mid 17th century.

Clifhayne was refurbished in mid 19th century but still stands and retains 17th century crossbeams in the parlour and kitchen.
